

MOUNTAIN SPARK GAPS OCTOBER 1973

New Providence Amateur Radio Club, Inc., P.O.Box 813, New Providence, N.J.

MEETING: TUESDAY OCTOBER 9, 1973 at 8:30 P.M.

ARNOLD AUDITORIUM, BELL TELEPHONE LABORATORIES
MOUNTAIN AVENUE, MURRAY HILL, NEW JERSEY

THIS IS OUR BIG MEETING OF THE YEAR. It is jointly sponsored by several local clubs. We have room to seat 350 people and after that you'll have to stand so get there early and enjoy a comfortable seat!

RICHARD L. BALDWIN, W1RU, Assistant General Manager of the American Radio Relay League will be our featured guest speaker. His subject:

"THE AMATEUR RADIO SERVICE AND INTERNATIONAL TELECOMMUNICATIONS"

Dick has been licensed since 1934 and has held an Extra Class license for 21 years. He holds DXCC, WAS, WAC, and A-1 Operator awards. He came to work for the League in 1948 as an Assistant Secretary. In 1956 he became Managing Editor of QST. In 1963 he became Assistant General Manager. Most of his time is spent working with governmental authorities both national and international. He has traveled extensively through Europe, the Middle East, Africa, and South America, obtaining support for the amateur radio service, and has participated frequently in seminars and conferences at the headquarters of the International Telecommunication Union in Geneva, Switzerland. He supervises the ARRL Intruder Watch. Dick has recently been doing work in preparation for an international telecommunications conference which is expected to take place sometime between 1978 and 1980. Now is the time to learn about what is ahead.

Stan Zak, K2SJO, Director of the Hudson Division of the ARRL will also be at the meeting so don't miss ~~this~~ chance to talk to him personally.

Our meeting this month is not on the usual second monday of the month since that turned out to be a holiday so come on out on TUESDAY night, October 9 and don't forget the location: Bell Labs, Murray Hill.

Drive in the front entrance on Mountain Avenue right across from Ryder Way. Plenty of free parking right in front of Arnold Auditorium.

Bring a guest - bring your wife or husband - bring your girl or boyfriend.
